Melbourne,
Australia.

Sir,

With reference to your letter dated July 1, 1937, I have to inform you that the addresses of your brother and sister in Shanghai are as follows :-

Mr. V. G. Ankudinoff, 19 Route Vallon.

Mrs. M. Tonkin, 956/A.10 Rue Bourgeat.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

(Sd) K. M. Bourne

REPORT

Date July 16, 1937

Subject Letter from Mr. M. Ankudinoff, Melbourne, Australia, requesting information regarding his relations in Shanghai.

Made by D.S.I. Prokofiev. Forwarded by C. Crawford

Enquiries show that Mr. M. Ankudinoff, the writer of the attached latter, has one brother and four sisters in Shanghai, namely:-

1. Mr. V.G. Ankudinoff, 19 Route Vallom.
2. Mrs M. Tonkin, 956/ A 10 Rue Bourgeat.
3. Mrs Lily Walter, 163/23 Route de Grouchy (Savoy Apartments)
4. Mrs Liza Lucas, 19 Route Vallon
5. Mrs Mary Joergens, Savoy Apartments, Route de Say Zoong.

Mr. M. Tonkin, British, of the Polish Import & Export Co., Ltd, 320 Szechuen Road, who furnished the above information, stated that some time ago his wife (maiden name Ankudinoff) requested Mr. V.G. Bowden, Australian Trade Commissioner for China, to institute enquiries in Australia regarding the whereabouts of her brother, Michael Ankudinoff, who was believed to reside in that country. In result of these enquiries an individual named Michael Ankudinoff was located in Melbourne. He wrote to Mr. M. Tonkin c/o Mr. V.G. Bowden and gave his address as 101 Abbotford Str., Melbourne.

However, the contents of the letters received aroused the suspicions of Mrs Tonkin and her sisters that the writer of these letters was not their brother, but some other person who was not at all associated with the family. Therefore, they expect from would-be Michael Ankudinoff further proofs of his identity.

Mr. M. Tonkin has no objection to his ~~xxx~~ address being communicated to Mr. M. Ankudinoff.
